18:32:30 From Fabiola Decius : Sorry, I have to log off and attend a virtual theater rehearsal. However, this building plan looks promising. My question is pertaining to parking both during and after this building project, but I'm sure someone can fill me in later about this.

18:40:05 From Lisa Hy : Lisa Hy, Mayor Walsh's Neighborhood Liaison. Please feel free to email me with any questions you may have - Lisa.hy@boston.gov

18:40:17 From Alicia Reines-Leo : It would be nice to have a space for us all to meet together as a school.

18:40:39 From patbrophy : Thank you @Lisa

18:41:45 From Richard Chang : @ Alicia Our gymnasium space will be substantial enough to accommodate the great many of our students and staff (approximately 10K sq. Ft)

18:42:33 From Kristina Danahy : @ Richard would we be able to all fit on bleachers?

18:44:06 From Andre Kamili : Were below grade program space considered to maximize the real estate ?

18:44:29 From Alicia Reines-Leo : For the flex space, has there been any design consideration for social distancing?

18:44:38 From Joanne : This is so exciting and wonderful for the school community. The new school will have all of the features that the current school currently lacks - gym, library, science lab, how can we work with the Mayor's staff and BPS to get access to ese types of resources through partnerships etc. Our children have been severely shortchanged for decades.

18:44:47 From Tess McNamara : Is it possible that there may be times when the gym space (or any other spaces) will be "off limits" to JQUS due to community partners using the space (either during or after school)?

18:50:30 From Zuleyka : How big would be the cafeteria be?
